

WM. HAYNIE, ADMINISTRATOR OF ANN HAYNIE.

[To accompany Bill H. R. No. 777.]

MAY 25, 1860.

Mr. JENKINS, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of William Haynie, administrator of Ann Haynie, deceased, praying to be allowed the difference between the pay of a lieutenant and adjutant in the revolutionary war in the matter of the allowance of a pension to said Ann Haynie, now deceased, who was the widow of William Haynie, a revolutionary soldier, report:

That the evidence in this case proves very clearly that William Haynie served three years in the revolution certainly, and probably five. He served one year as adjutant and two years as private, ensign, and lieutenant. His widow was married to him prior to the commencement of the revolutionary war. William Haynie died 25th of August, 1825, and his widow, Ann Haynie, died 10th of November, 1843. The pension office allowed her $159 per annum from 4th of March, 1831, to her decease; but she was entitled to $380 per annum. Your committee, therefore, report a bill for the relief of William Haynie, with the recommendation that it do pass.
